This document gives Rhythm Auctions the permission to bid on behalf of the above said name up to the amount indicated. If there is no other party bidding, the auctioneer comes down to approximately half the amount shown, and then the auctioneer has the right to open the bidding on this customer's behalf. If no one bids against him, then it's sold for that amount. If then another person bids, the auctioneer takes the absentee in increments taken at that time until the price has reached the MAX stage. Absentee fees do apply even if the item is not won. Rhythm Auctions makes no 100% guarantee that the item will go to an absentee bid, but will make every effort to do so. It is the buyer's responsibility to inspect each item as to condition, quality, quantity, etc.

Main auction terms and conditions apply over and above this one.

I, _____ agree these terms and conditions
